Gospel-Centered Discipleship

A disciple is someone who has met Jesus and follows him with their whole lives. And since the Gospel is good news that impacts every facet of life, a disciple of Jesus must keep the Gospel at the center of their life. We call this Gospel-Centered Discipleship - a simple way to summarize the Bible's teaching on discipleship into four primary callings that disciples pursue and help others pursue.

TRUST THE GOSPEL

The life of a disciple of Jesus Christ begins and grows with an ever increasing trust in the Gospel.

LIVE THE GOSPEL

The Gospel speaks to every part of our lives and over time our lives are formed by the Gospel.

SPEAK THE GOSPEL

Disciples speak the Gospel to fellow Christians to remind, encourage and instruct one another in the Gospel.

SHARE THE GOSPEL

The Gospel empowers us to love non-Christians and to share the best thing that has ever happened to us - the Gospel!
