

King - God rules over everyone

For God is the King of all the earth; sing praises with a psalm! God reigns over the nations; God sits on his holy throne.

- Psalm 47:7-8

King - God rules over everyone

For God is the King of all the earth; sing praises with a psalm!
God reigns over the nations; God sits on his holy throne.

- Psalm 47:7-8

Who is in charge of our country, the United States of America? (The President)

Does the President have authority to tell people in the USA what to do? (Yes)

Can he make them do whatever he wants? (No. Even the President has to obey the laws.)

Does the President have authority to tell someone in China what to do? (No. He only has authority over people in the USA.)

These verses remind us that God is king over all kings. He rules over everyone... you, me, people in China, even the President of the United States. He is the highest authority. He is the "boss" of everything and everyone.

Because God is king, how should I act toward him?

- I should worship him and praise him a psalm (this is just another word for song)
- I should obey him, knowing that his commands are right and good (Psalm 19:7-11)
- I should trust him because he watches over and cares for me (Psalm 34:15)
- I should love him since he alone is worthy of all love, honor, and praise (Revelation 4:11)
